By M. Marmur
I did a search for 2017 calendars and this was part of the list. I was buying several presents and chose this because it was for my husband who loves film trivia. I didn't realize that it was 2014 nor did my husband until he brought it to work and flipped to the first day. Why would you sell a 2014 calendar mixed in with the 2017 calendars? It costs $5 to return. It will just end up in the garbage and I won't buy calendars from ever again. Ridiculous!

Annual purchase
By K Kristan
I buy a desk calendar every year, and I love entertainment trivia, so this is a perfect fit for me. As a bonus, I have actually had previous versions of this one and loved them too, so I was very pleased to get this. From the pictures I couldn't tell that this was just this year's model but I am happy it was. There are a variety of puzzles, crossword, standard trivia, mixed up letters, etc. It makes me happy to see each day's question.
