Ealing was an English studio that produced some of the best movies in the WORLD in the late 1940s thru the mid-1950s. Among the movies produced were 'Passport to Pimlico', 'Whisky Galore', and 'Kind Hearts and Coronets', etc., etc., etc. This listing does not even begin to do justice to just the movies that are world famous. The book is well written and comprehensive with many photos of the productions and the stars.. I give this book my highest recommendation-and recommend you view DVDs of some of these movies. You will be "blown away."0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy EdVery interesting read for anyone interested in British film history.
