By Jason Robletto I bought this book mainly for the song "Mr. President, Have Pity On The Working Man" by Randy Newman. However, I soon realized that there were several great tunes from the movie that appear in this book that I was also excited to play. Before long, I was playing other great music on the piano such as "Hounddog" by Elvis Presley and "Volunteers" by Jefferson Airplane. The music is very well written, clear and easy to follow. It seems to be very accurate. One strange thing about the Randy Newman song, however, is that it is written out in Bb... but played on the record in B. I don't know why the key is different in the sheet music, but the music seems to be right, just in an alternate key. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful.
