This is an excellent book by a fabulous movie criticBy Cheryl KrallThis is an excellent book by a fabulous movie critic, whose reviews I enjoy reading.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Wonderful bookBy Loves to readI gave this to my boss for his birthday. He's a movie buff and relied on Mr. Garner's reviews. He loved the book.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. I love it. Of course.By Jack GarnerOf course I think it's great. Why wouldn't I? I wrote it!

From My Seat on the Aisle chronicles more than 30 years of Jack Garner's experience as a nationally syndicated film critic for the Gannett newspapers. His book compiles the best of his essays, reviews, and interviews with many Hollywood celebrities such as Audrey Hepburn, Clint Eastwood, Meryl Streep, Jimmy Stewart, Woody Allen, and Philip Seymour Hoffman. Garner offers a unique perspective into the world of film that is humorous, anecdotal, and insightful.

About the Author Jack Garner was a film critic and entertainment writer for the Rochester Democrat and Chronicle for thirty years and appointed chief film critic for the Gannett News Service in 1987. Now retired, he continues to write weekly film reviews as well as jazz and classic film critiques. Garner is a recipient of the prestigious George Eastman Medal of Honor and contributor to the Eastman House academic journal, Image. He is a member of the Broadcast Film Critics Association, the Eastman House Council, and recipient of the 2013 Impact Award from the Rochester Media Association.
