Judd Apatow, Jason Schwartzman : Funny People: The Shooting Script before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Funny People: The Shooting Script:

In Funny People, writer/director Judd Apatow finds humor in one of the biggest struggles of a persons lifetime. Through the story of a famous comedian, George Simmons (Adam Sandler), who has a near-death experience, and what he does with a second chance, Apatow addresses a question that hasnt been touched with such trademark blunttness: If you had the chance to start all over again, would you be the same jerk you always were? The film stars Adam Sandler, Seth Rogen, Leslie Mann, Eric Bana, Jonah Hill, Jason Schwartzman, RZA, Aziz Ansari, and Aubrey Plaza.

"Apatow's richest, most complicated movie yet" summing up of his feelings about comedy and its relation to the rest of existence. The movie has passages of uneasy brilliance and many incidental pleasures... Apatow, who probably understands the obsessive loneliness of comics as well as anyone, also knows a thing or two about family life. The miracle of Funny People is that it brings these two entirely dissimilar, even antagonistic worlds into a single, resonant whole." David Denby, The New Yorker

"Apatow writes with warmth and wit, potentially hilarious. He scores by crafting the film equivalent of a stand-up routine that encompasses the joy, pain, anger, loneliness and aching doubt that go into making an audience laugh." Peter Travers, Rolling Stone

"One of the most absorbing films of the year." New York Post
