Paul Jackson : Funny Side of Ronnie Corbett (No.2) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Funny Side of Ronnie Corbett (No.2):

In these half-hour interviews, first broadcast on BBC Radio 4 to great acclaim and an audience of more than one million, Paul Jackson talks to some of the best known comedians and comedy writers of the last twenty years. As BBC Controller of Entertainment and responsible for some of the classic radio and television comedy shows over twenty-five years, including The Young Ones, he is able to ask questions prompting unique and intimate insights from his guests about their inspiration and backgrounds. In this second tape: Ronnie Corbett talks about cooking, golf, and his role in one of TV's greatest partnerships Barry Cryer talks about working with Danny La Rue and Noel Coward, and writing with David Frost and the future Pythons Penelope Keith talks about To The Manor Born and The Good Life and her role as a Blair Babe before we ever heard of Tony Tim Brooke-Taylor and Graeme Garden talk about Cambridge in the 60s, the Python boom, The Goodies and Im Sorry I Havent a Clue

About the Author Was BBC Controller of Entertainment, now an independent producer.
