My husband, nephews, and I absolutely love it! You don't have to geek to play. There's a little something for everyone in this game.The player pieces don't really fit well on the board and there are only 4 pieces. We usually play with 4-6 people so we ended up using Monopoly playing pieces. The games original pieces don't account for 2 people landing on the same space, but with several people playing, it happens.Whether you're into comic books, physics, video games, or geeky films and TV, you'll have fun with Geek Battle.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Lots of fun for game nightBy Ashley BuffMy husband and I love trivia and have been looking for a good trivia game for quite awhile. We had tried another "geek" trivia game in the past and the questions were too difficult for even the two of us to answer, so I was a little worried about the trivia topics for this game. Luckily, there is something for everyone, from science to comics to movies, and the questions are pretty fun to answer. I'm not huge on the design of the board, and it becomes a little clustered the more players you have. But overall, it was fun!1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Great QuestionsBy MageekFast easy to learn. The questions cover a great variety of "geek" fields and are of a good difficulty level.Small and portable too.

Highly recommend. I feel like the questions are where the game shines. The actual board / movement isn't very well thought out. The warp zones are sort of annoying and it feels like the d12 was put in the game just because it makes it more geeky. It is easy to make your own board or just play with all warp zones being geek battle spaces. (also, why is winning a GB worse than getting a normal question correct? 5 avg(1d12).) Looking forward to getting an expansion pack with more questions.

This game presents the ultimate challenge for all nerds, from DDers to techies. Players divide into teams to battle their way through rigorous trivia categories, including sci-fi, fantasy, comics, video games, science, and technology. The goal is to reach the Inner Sanctum of Geekdom, the crowning glory for every geek!- For 3+ players, ages 10 and up- Includes: game board, 125 trivia cards, 50 Geek Battle Cards, 1 D12 (twelve-sided die), 1 D6 (six-sided die), 4 player pieces
