0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Poor Formatting - Not Useful At All!By Harriet EngleTried the sample, and it is unreadable on my Fire. The page of score is about 1/3 the size of the screen, and once you zoom in to be able to read it, you can't turn the page! Have to zoom in on each page every time. Utterly unusable for singing purposes. Glad I didn't waste the money on this!

George Frideric Handel (1685 1759) was a German baroque composer. He spent most of his career in London and became famous for his oratorios, operas, anthems, and organ compositions. Handel was born in the same year as Johann Sebastian Bach and Domenico Scarlatti, and he is commonly hailed as one of the most important composers of the Baroque era. His most notable works include: Water Music, Music for the Royal Fireworks, and Messiah. This book contains one of George Handel's most famous compositions, Messiah, HWV56, a solo piano oratorio written in 1741. Featuring large, clear note heads and wide margins, this edition is perfect for studying and following the music. Classic Music Collection constitutes an extensive library of the most well-known and universally-enjoyed works of classical music ever composed, reproduced from authoritative editions for the enjoyment of musicians and music students the world over.
