The arrangements are of a intermediate level for pianists; not bare bones, but not very difficult for an average music teacher. My guess is around level 5 of piano study. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great book if you're looking for a song to play ...By TG Michigan Most customers will know most of the songs. And the ones they don't, they should. Great book if you're looking for a song to play or sing. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five Stars By Customer Love this book, as a music teacher it is an ESSENTIAL resource Community ... use singing to bring people together once again in your neighborhood, home, church, camp, school, club or activity. Plan now to include some audience participation at a concert or other public event. Throw in a song or two at the beginning of a meeting to melt the ice and get communication going. Restore the fun of camp singing next time you gather a group around the fire. Get out the guitar, sit down at the piano, tune up the Autoharp, add a bass, drums, or any other instruments you can lay your hands on, and have a sing-a-long. Developed in association with the Music Educators National Conference (MENC) and other music organizations, this publication contains over 40 songs which represent America's vast and varied music heritage, along with an introduction by America's own Pete Seeger. A portion of the proceeds from the sale of these editions will benefit the national MENC campaign to "Get America Singing ... Again!" Available: Piano/Vocal/Guitar Edition, Singer's Edition, and Singer's Edition (10-pak). For all ages.
