Sam Sloan : Go Made Easy before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Go Made Easy:

Go is the easiest game in the world to learn, but the hardest game in the world to master. This book is intended for beginners but it provides the basic strategies used by the most advanced, top level professional players. Get through this book from beginning to end, and you will be on your way to Meijin.

About the AuthorSam Sloan is a publisher of books on chess, go and other board games. He is a former member of the Executive Board of the United States Chess Federation.
