This is Vol. 13 of the BBC series. The programs date from 1957 and the CD contains the following episodes;
1. Moriarty Murder Mystery
2. King Solomon's Mines
3. #1,000,000 Penny
4. The Vanishing Room
The performances are basic Goon Show riot. If you are exploring Goon for the first time, these are as Goon as any. The sound is monophonic but quite good for the age. The voices were close miked so you don't lose much clarity. Anyway, there are websites with scripts available so you can follow along and figure out the more "obscure" words. A good Goon to fall in the water with.

following review helpful. Insane! By Albert James Watts The antics they got up to I still find as amusing today as I did when I used to listen to their broadcasts.

Goon but not forgotten. From 1951 to 1960 the Goons ruled the airwaves, the most celebrated and influential clowns in the history of radio. Join Inspector Ned Seagoon on the trail of the horrible vanishing room, the fabled million pound penny, and the case of the Mauve Raven. Yes, folks, three thrilling crime-type murders for naughty Ned to get his nut around; plus Lord Seagoon's search for King Solomon's Mines. So travel the crazy world, Jim, with the help of the all-leather Goon Show in a quartet of cult comedy classics The Moriarty Murder Mystery, King Solomon's Mines, The 1,000,000 Penny, and The Vanishing Room. But beware of the very old crocodile. He won the Old Croc's Race. 2 CDs. 2 hrs 2 mins.

About the Author Spike Milligan was perhaps best known as one of the Goons. He went on to become one of Britain's foremost comic writers and performers. His bestselling titles include Adolf Hitler: My Part in His Downfall, Puckoon, and Where have all the Bullets Gone? He died in 2002. Larry Stephens was a scriptwriter who wrote for several popular comedy shows in the 1950s, including The Tony Hancock Show and The Army Game. He is probably best known as co-writer of many Goon Show episodes, along with Spike Milligan. He died in 1959. Maurice Wiltshire was a screenwriter and script editor who wrote for many television programs including The Army Game and HMS Paradise. He co-wrote several episodes of The Goon Show, as well as adapting 26 of the radio scripts for two series of a 15-minute television puppet show called The Telegoons.
