Thank you for finally reissuing these, BBC. Hearing every line is MUCH EASIER when listening to a CD than when capturing a BBC World Service (or Home Service broadcast)... plus, they can be listened to more than once! 0 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Out of their minds. By nancy cooke If you are willing to pay close attention and listen to this show at least 20 times you will be richly awarded! The finest hour of comedy. Also great radio music (big band)!

Goon but not forgotten. From 1951 to 1960, the Goons ruled the airwaves, the most celebrated and influential clowns in the history of radio. Go on and savor some of the special guests as Dick Emery, Kenneth Connor, Graham Stark, and George Chisholm get in on the Goonery. Follow their fortunes as they trace the dreaded Spon, go bagpipe playing in the South Pole, march off to war ("Name your weapon." "I name my weapon Basil.") and attempt to find a cure for Neddie's poverty-stricken wallet. Yes folks, it's the all-leather Goon Show, another quartet of cult comedy classics - Spon (with Dick Emery), The Curse of Frankenstein (with George Chisholm), Who is Pink Oboe (with Graham Stark Kenneth Connor), and The 50th Cure (with Kenneth Connor). So laugh along with those wireless wizards Peter Sellers, Spike Milligan, Harry Secombe, and friends. They've found an apple. Their search is no longer fruitless. 2 CDs. 2 hrs.
