Garrison Keillor : Gospel Birds and Other Stories of Lake Wobegon before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Gospel Birds and Other Stories of Lake Wobegon:

Good, Wholesome, Family EntertainmentBy Elaine DananI was looking for humor that wasn't bawdy or raucous and this tape more than delighted: I also found a great American storyteller. I barely knew the name having seen a taping of Garrison Keillor's radio show on TV once; so I wasn't familiar with the style or content. What makes his wide appeal is his vocal ability to get you on the edge of your seat, and his remarkable talent for impersonating any age or gender, and any relationship. A couple of the stories are merely poignant; with the majority being situation comedy of everyday life. My favorites: Pastor Inkfest's Trip to Orlando, The Beeler Boy, and The Fishing Dog.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Fun and interestingBy Gerry CutlerWas great for cross country car ride when no radio reception.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. More meaningful stories. Less comedyBy J. BradfordThoughtful stuff more than lol stuff. 5 stars.

Gospel Birds is a collection of nine classic and very funny monologues from the early years of A Prairie Home Companion. In addition to the title story (about Irma and Ernie Lundeen's traveling flock of acrobatic, bible-reciting birds), contents include: Pastor Ingquist's Trip to Orlando Mammoth Concert Tickets Bruno, the Fishing Dog Gospel Birds Meeting Donny Hart at the Bus Stop A Day at the Circus with Mazumbo The Tollerud's Korean Baby Sylvester Krueger's Desk Babe Ruth visits Lake Wobegon Gospel Birds is Garrison Keillor at his very best endearing insights, gentle humor and warm affection for the human foibles we all share.

About the Author GARRISON KEILLOR is America's favorite storyteller. For more than 35 years, as the host of A Prairie Home Companion, he has captivated millions of listeners with his weekly News from Lake Wobegon monologues. A Prairie Home Companion is heard on hundreds of public radio stations, as well as America One, the Armed Forces Networks, Sirius Satellite Radio, and via a live audio webcast. Keillor is also the author of several books and a frequent contributor to national publications including Time, The New Yorker, and National Geographic, in addition to writing his own syndicated column. He has been awarded a National Humanities Medal from the National Endowment of the Humanities. When not touring, he resides in St. Paul, Minnesota.
