Franz Liszt : Grand Galop Chromatique S.219 - For Solo Piano (1938) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Grand Galop Chromatique S.219 - For Solo Piano (1938):

This book contains Franz Liszt's 1838 solo piano composition, Grand Galop Chromatique S.219. This modern, high-quality reproduction is perfect for students and is worthy of inclusion in all classical musical collections. Franz Liszt (1811 1886) was a seminal 19th-century composer, virtuoso, teacher, conductor, and author from Hungary. He is commonly hailed as one of the most important composers of the New German School, gaining fame in the early nineteenth century for his incredible skill as a pianist. He also played a significant role in the popularisation of wide range of music. This modern, high-quality reproduction is perfect for students and worthy of inclusion in allied collections. Classic Music Collection constitutes an extensive library of the most well-known and universally-enjoyed works of classical music ever composed, reproduced from authoritative editions for the enjoyment of musicians and music students the world over.
