Franz Liszt : Grandes Etudes de Paganini S.141 - For Solo Piano (1851) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Grandes Etudes de Paganini S.141 - For Solo Piano (1851):

This volume contains the complete score for Franz Liszt's 1938 solo piano composition, Grandes tudes de Paganini S.141. Featuring large, clear note heads and wide margins, this edition is perfect for studying and following the music, and would make for a fantastic addition to collections of allied literature. Franz Liszt (1811 1886) was a seminal 19th-century composer, virtuoso, teacher, conductor, and author from Hungary. He is commonly hailed as one of the most important composers of the New German School, gaining fame in the early nineteenth century for his incredible skill as a pianist. He also played a significant role in the popularisation of wide range of music. Classic Music Collection constitutes an extensive library of the most well-known and universally-enjoyed works of classical music ever composed, reproduced from authoritative editions for the enjoyment of musicians and music students the world over.
