Jerry Robbins : Guns of Powder River: A Radio Dramatization before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Guns of Powder River: A Radio Dramatization:

1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. great production all around By Wayne Yunker "Guns of Powder

"River" is an exceptional experience. This is the way radio should be, great production all around. Great story line, well paced. Outstanding acting. Action packed, kept my interest throughout. I would recommend this product to anyone who enjoys Radio Dramas, especially westerns. I purchased the full length feature "Powder River and the Mountain of Gold" and plan on purchasing the next full length features when they become available. Extremely satisfied with "Guns of Powder River". 2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Huge hit with my old time radio fan of a husband! By jean ruppert Awesome! Last minute gift for hubby and got it all on time and he loves it! Glad I ordered it! 0 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Two Stars By Terry Westberg boring

Two women and their children arrive in Clearmont in route to California. Mrs. Chambers is looking to reunite with her husband, who has been off mining for gold, while Mrs. Larson is a recent widow whose husband died of a snake bite along the trail. The women are determined to press onward despite the onset of winter. So, Britt MacMasters, former U.S. Marshal turned rancher, and his ranch-hand Rusty, offer to escort the party through hostile territory. Also joining the party are Sheriff Wilkins, his wife Etta, and Doc Harrington. The hardy pioneers must dodge Indian attacks, stay clear of the outlaw Angel Garret and his blood thirsty band of thieves, survive rock slides, and ford raging rivers in this epic western adventure.

About the Author Jerry Robbins, co-founder of the Colonial Radio Theatre on the Air has written and produced over 350 radio plays, including Ticonderoga, Captain Blood, The Legend of Sleepy Hollow, Gettysburg, Treasure Island, Yankee Clipper, Powder River, and Little Big Horn. In 2006 he started a collaboration with legendary author Ray Bradbury, producing Dandelion Wine, followed by Something Wicked This Way Comes, and wrote the script for, and produced The Halloween Tree; all award winning productions that garnered high praise from the master himself. He is currently working on a fourth collaboration with Mr. Bradbury, a radio dramatization of The Martian Chronicles.
