Alan Simpson, Ray Galton : Hancock's Half Hour: The Very Best Episodes Volume 2 (BBC Radio Collections)
before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Hancock's Half Hour:
The Very Best Episodes Volume 2 (BBC Radio Collections):

Galton and Simpson have chosen another selection of favorite episodes from the classic radio series. The Conjuror sees Hancock taking up magic, and hired by Sid to put on a show at Dartmoor Prison. Little does he know that its only a front for an escape plan. . . In Cyrano de Hancock, Sid is besotted with Miss Pugh, and asks for Hancocks help in expressing his love, while The Diary finds Hancock looking back at 1956, and falling into a reverie where he imagines himself as a surgeon, a lion tamer, and a test pilot. Finally, in The Impersonator, Hancock hears an actor in a cornflake commercial imitating his voice, and promptly takes the impersonator to court. Once again, the master of misery is supported by a star cast including Sid James, Bill Kerr, Kenneth Williams, and Hattie Jacques, and four sparkling scripts by the masters of mirth, Galton and Simpson. 2 CDs. 2 hrs.
